

6-day faculty development programme begins

HANS NEWS SERVICE

Kakinada: A six day faculty development programme began at JNTU-K in petroleum engineering and petro chemical engineering [PE and PCE] on downstream processing of oil and Petroleum gas refining under technique programme.

Faculty development director G S R Deekshathulu, JNTU-K campus engineering college principal P Scuba Rao, director of e-petroleum courses K V Rao and others addressed the inaugural programme on Monday.

Faculty coordinators, affiliated colleges principals, teachers staff and others attended.

