JNTUK Kakinada is having about 200 students admitted every year under PhD program. University is monitoring progress in research centers established in various disciplines catering to promotion of research activity. As per the academic regulations, after completion of the research work, the PhD thesis will be subjected to verification of plagiarism in the content enclosed. The material with a prescribed minimum percentage of similarity will be permitted for submission for Pre PhD and Final evaluation.

Vide reference (ii) & (iii) cited, the Standing Council of Academic Senate of the University has decided to avail Turnitin Anti Plagiarism Software in place of existing Urkund (Original) software, for similarity verification, to enhance the quality of Research.

Hence, the research scholars are hereby intimated that from April 2023 onwards the Doctoral works submitted for processing after clearance in Pre-talk by the Research Review Committee, will undergo similarity verification through the "Turnitin Anti Plagiarism Software".
